

Topper Lift

- Elevates or lowers product while preserving product orientation coming out of a spiral cooler or other application
- Upper chain drapes down and rides on lower transport conveyor, acting as a moving top keeper to allow a much steeper angle
- Combines a very compact footprint with the ability to handle products of varying sizes – even “unconveyables” – without adjustment

